Decision

Decision Date: May 30, 2018

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000030226

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period?

Procedural History

On January 18, 2018, NYSOH received your application for health insurance.

On January 19, 2018, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to receive an advance premium tax credit of up to $240.00 per month, effective March 1, 2018.

Also on January 19, 2018, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice confirming your enrollment in a qualified health plan, effective March 1, 2018.

On March 15, 2018, you attempted to enroll into a different qualified health plan, but were unable.

Also on March 15, 2018, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed insofar as you were not eligible to enroll in a different health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

On March 16, 2018, NYSOH issued a notice to confirm your appeal request from the previous day. That notice stated that the reason for your appeal was "Eligibility determination."

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On May 14, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are appealing being denied a special enrollment period to enroll into a health plan through NYSOH.
- 2) On January 18, 2018, you submitted an application for health insurance with the assistance of a certified application counselor. You enrolled in a qualified health plan the same day.
- 3) On March 15, 2018, you attempted to enroll in a different qualified health plan, because the health plan you were enrolled in did not cover dental.
- 4) You testified that a certified application counselor helped you submit an application when you were at the [REDACTED] for [REDACTED] treatment, and she selected a plan on your behalf after reviewing them with you to ensure that [REDACTED] would accept the plan you chose. You testified that the application counselor knew your age and that you were [REDACTED] [REDACTED] for [REDACTED], so you believed that you would have dental coverage with your qualified health plan.
- 5) You testified that you do not remember if you discussed dental coverage with the certified application counselor when your health plan was selected.
- 6) Your NYSOH account indicates that your certified application counselor enrolled you into a qualified health plan that covers pediatric dental only.
- 7) You testified that you were first aware of the limited coverage when you spoke with your qualified health plan, and were advised that your plan covered pediatric dental only.
- 8) You confirmed that you received the January 19, 2018 plan confirmation notice, which stated that you were enrolled in Fidelis Care Silver ST INN Pediatric Dental Dep25.
- 9) You testified that since filing your application on January 18, 2018, there have been no other major changes to your household.

10) You testified that you did not rely on any statements made by NYSOH that prevented you in enrolling in a different qualified health plan sooner.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

De Novo Review

NYSOH Appeals Unit must review each appeal de novo and “consider all relevant facts and evidence adduced during the appeals process” (45 CFR § 155.535(f)). “De novo review means a review of an appeal without deference to prior decisions in the case” (45 CFR § 155.500).

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a health plan and enrollees may change health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)). For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2018, the national annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2017 and extended through December 15, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(3)). NY State extended this enrollment period through January 31, 2018 for applications processed through NYSOH (https://www.health.ny.gov/press/releases/2017/2017-09-07_open_enrollment_dates.htm).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
 - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
 - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
 - (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.

(iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.

(2)(i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.

(ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.

(3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.

(4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

(5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you did not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

You testified that you are appealing NYSOH's denial of a special enrollment period to enroll into a different health plan through NYSOH. However, the record does not contain a notice of eligibility determination or redetermination on the issue of special enrollment period.

Here, the lack of a notice of eligibility determination on the issue of special enrollment periods does not prevent the Appeals Unit from reaching the merits of the case or constitute material error. Under 45 CFR § 155.505(b), you are as entitled to appeal NYSOH failure to timely issue a notice of eligibility determination as you are to appeal an adverse notice of eligibility determination. Your credible testimony along with the March 16, 2018 appeal confirmation notice stating that the reason for your appeal was "Eligibility determination", permits an inference that NYSOH did deny your special enrollment request.

Since the Appeals Unit review of NYSOH determinations is performed on a de novo basis, no deference would have been granted to the eligibility determination notice had it been issued.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2017 until January 31, 2018. On January 18, 2018, you submitted an application for health insurance and enrolled in a qualified health plan the same day. On March 15, 2018, outside the open enrollment period, you attempted to enroll in a different qualified health plan to obtain dental coverage, but were unable.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period in order to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. To qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

A special enrollment period can be granted if a qualified individual's enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities

You testified that a certified application counselor helped you submit an application when you were at [REDACTED] for [REDACTED] treatment, and that she selected a plan on your behalf after reviewing them with you to ensure that [REDACTED] would accept the plan you chose. You testified that the application counselor knew your age and that you were [REDACTED] for [REDACTED], so you believed that you would have dental coverage with your qualified health plan.

However, your NYSOH account indicates that your certified application counselor erroneously enrolled you into a qualified health plan that covers pediatric dental only. You testified that you were first aware of the limited coverage when you spoke with your qualified health plan, and were advised that your plan covered pediatric dental only.

The record indicates that, with the assistance of a certified application counselor, you were enrolled into a qualified health plan that does not include adult dental coverage, which is what you needed. The record also supports that pediatric dental coverage was not what you were seeking nor did you have any use for such coverage. Instead, you needed adult dental coverage, which is not provided through your current health plan. Therefore, it is concluded that your enrollment in a qualified health plan with pediatric dental was the direct result of an error made by a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities. As such, you should have been granted a special enrollment period as of your January 18, 2018 application.

Therefore, NYSOH's verbal determination that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2018 was incorrect, and you should have been eligible for a special enrollment period as of the date of the error; that is, as of your January 18, 2018 application.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to assist you in enrolling into a qualified health plan that includes adult dental coverage. You may choose to enroll into a qualified health plan as of January 18, 2018, because an enrollment error was made that day. In the alternative, you may elect to enroll into coverage within 60 days from the date of this decision.
