Decision

Decision Date: May 22, 2018

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000030278

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were eligible for Medicaid?

Procedural History

On March 16, 2018, NY State of Health (NYSOH) received your updated application for financial assistance with health insurance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that you were eligible for Medicaid, effective March 1, 2018.

Also on March 16, 2018, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed that preliminary eligibility determination notice insofar as you did not remain eligible for the Essential Plan.

On March 17, 2018, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible for Medicaid, effective March 1, 2018.

Also on March 17, 2018, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice confirming your enrollment in a Medicaid Managed Care plan, effective May 1, 2018.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On May 16, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and the record was held open until May 31, 2018, to allow you time to submit supporting documents.

Also on May 16, 2018, you uploaded the necessary supporting documentation to your NYSOH account. The documents were incorporated into the record as [REDACTED] and the record was closed that same day.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your tax return for 2018 with a tax filing status of single. You will claim no dependents on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking health insurance for yourself.
- 3) The application that was submitted on March 16, 2018, listed an expected annual household income of $7,436.00, consisting of income you receive from unemployment insurance benefits. You testified that this amount was correct at that time.
- 4) You testified that, at the time of your March 16, 2018 application, you were not employed and the only income you were receiving was from unemployment insurance benefits.
- 5) You testified, and provided documentation to show, that your monthly income for March 2018 was $1,144.00 (see [REDACTED]).
- 6) You testified that, on March 31, 2018, you began a new job and your income has since changed.
- 7) You testified that you are now making $16.78 an hour and work and, on average, work 40 hours a week.
- 8) You testified that you got your first paystub from your new job on [REDACTED].
- 9) You testified that since you are employed, you feel like you should be paying for your health insurance coverage and should not be eligible for Medicaid.
- 10) You testified that you would like to be found eligible for the Essential Plan.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable FPL or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one-person household (82 Federal Register 8831).

Medicaid

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL “for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility” (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2018 FPL, which is $12,140.00 for a one-person household (83 Fed. Reg. 2642).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

Generally, most adults determined eligible for Medicaid are guaranteed 12 months of Medicaid coverage, even if they lose Medicaid eligibility because of any changes or updates they make to their NYSOH account. For example, even if income increases above the Medicaid limit allowed for the household size, the insured will remain covered under Medicaid for a 12-month period. This 12-month period is referred to as “continuous coverage” and is set based on the start date of the original Medicaid eligibility determination or the date of a subsequent Medicaid eligibility determination based on modified adjusted gross income (NY Social Services Law § 366(4)(c)).

An individual will be enrolled or remain in their Medicaid plan with limited exceptions, including entering prison or another facility that provides medical care, citizenship status, lack of state residence, failing to provide a valid Social Security number, or having third party health insurance (NY Social Services Law § 366(4)(c)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined you were ineligible for the Essential Plan.

The application that was submitted on March 16, 2018 listed an annual household income of $7,436.00, and the eligibility determination relied upon that information.

You are in a one-person household for purposes of this analysis. This is because you expect to file your 2018 income tax return as single and will claim no dependents on that tax return.

The Essential Plan is generally provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size.

On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $12,060.00 for a one-person household. Since an annual household income of $7,436.00 is 61.66% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be ineligible for the Essential Plan.

The second issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for Medicaid.

On your March 16, 2018 application, you attested to an expected household income of $7,436.00. You credibly testified that the income you provided in the March 16, 2018 application was an accurate reflection at that time of your expected 2018 household income. The eligibility determination relied upon that information.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults between the ages of 19 and 64 who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household MAGI that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size. There is no indication in your NYSOH account that you would be ineligible for Medicaid based on non-financial requirements.

On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $12,140.00 for a one-person household. Since $7,436.00 is 61.25% of the 2018 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be eligible for Medicaid based on your expected annual income, using the information provided in your application.

Since the March 17, 2018 eligibility determination notice properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were ineligible for the Essential Plan and eligible for Medicaid, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.

During the hearing, you testified that you started working at a new job on [REDACTED], so the expected annual household income information that you provided in your March 16, 2018 application is no longer accurate. You further testified that since you started working, you feel like you should be paying for your health insurance.

However, there is no indication that you have updated your NYSOH account to reflect a change in income. Therefore, there has been no eligibility determination notice issued by NYSOH indicating how a change in income may affect or change your eligibility for financial assistance, if at all. As such, there is no eligibility redetermination for NYSOH's Appeals Unit to review at this time.

Since the NYSOH's Appeals Unit does not have the authority to update a consumer's application on their behalf, you will need to contact NYSOH and update your application to reflect your change in income.

Decision

The March 17, 2018 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: May 22, 2018

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for Medicaid, based on the information provided in your March 16, 2018 application.

NYSOH properly determined that you were ineligible for the Essential Plan, based on the information provided in your March 16, 2018 application.

This decision does not change your current eligibility.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

If applicable, if you think a portion of your appeal should not be dismissed, you can ask us to vacate, or cancel, this dismissal. You must ask us in writing within 30 days after the date on this notice, showing good cause as to why the dismissal should be vacated. NYSOH's Appeals Unit will review your request. If your request is approved, another hearing will be scheduled for you. If your request is denied, NYSOH will tell you in writing. If you do not respond to the dismissed portion of your appeal within 30 days, your appeal will remain dismissed, and NYSOH will take no further action on your appeal.

Insofar as your case was decided, the Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).

If you have questions about appealing to the Federal Marketplace, you can contact them in any of the following ways:
