Decision

Decision Date: May 24, 2018

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000030545

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost, effective May 1, 2018?

Procedural History

On March 21, 2018, you applied for health insurance and financial assistance through NYSOH.

That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost, effective May 1, 2018.

Also on March 21, 2018, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed that preliminary eligibility determination notice insofar as you were not eligible for financial assistance.

On March 22, 2018, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost, effective May 1, 2018. That notice also stated that you were not eligible for financial because your annual household income was over the allowable income limits for those programs.

On March 23, 2018, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you were eligible for the Essential Plan for a limited time, effective April 1, 2018. This was because you had been granted Aid to Continue pending the outcome of your appeal.

Also on March 23, 2018, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice stating that you were enrolled in the Essential Plan, effective April 1, 2018.

On May 17, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your tax return for 2018 with a tax filing status of married filing jointly. You will claim no dependents on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking health insurance with financial assistance for yourself.
- 3) The application that was submitted on March 21, 2018, listed annual household income of $71,308.00, consisting of $42,240.00 you earn from your employment and $29,068.00 your spouse earns from [REDACTED]. You testified that these amounts were correct.
- 4) Your application states that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2018 tax return.
- 5) Your application states that you live in [REDACTED].
- 6) You testified that you have bills, including your mortgage, that you think should be considered when calculating your household income.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

APTC are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a qualified health plan, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 26 CFR § 1.36B-2, 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $16,240.00 for a two-person household (82 Federal Register 8831).

Modified Adjusted Gross Income

NYSOH bases its eligibility determinations on modified adjusted gross income as defined in the federal tax code (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). The term “modified adjusted gross income” means adjusted gross income increased by (1) any income that was excluded under 26 USC § 911 for United States citizens or residents living abroad, (2) tax-exempt interest received or accrued, and (3) Social Security benefits that were excluded from gross income under 26 USC § 86 (see 26 USC § 36B(d)(2)(B), 26 CFR § 1.36B-1(e)(2)).

“Adjusted gross income” means, in the case of an individual taxpayer, gross federal taxable income minus certain specific deductions, such as expenses reimbursed by an employer, losses from sale or exchange of property, losses from premature withdrawal of funds from time savings accounts, deductions attributable to royalties, and certain retirement savings (26 USC § 62(a)). Living expenses, such as rent and utilities are not an allowable deduction in computing adjusted gross income (id.).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost, effective May 1, 2018.

The application that was submitted on March 21, 2018 listed an annual household income of $71,308.00 and the eligibility determination relied upon that information. During the hearing, you testified that the amount you provided in your application was correct. However, you asked that your current expenses, which includes your mortgage payment, be considered when calculating your annual household income.

Since the Internal Revenue Service rules do not allow living expenses to be deducted from the calculation of your adjusted gross income, they cannot be deducted when the NYSOH computes your modified adjusted gross income for APTC purposes. Therefore, NYSOH correctly determined your household income to be $71,308.00.

You are in a two-person household for purposes of this analysis. This is because you expect to file your 2018 income taxes as married filing jointly and will claim no dependents on that tax return. Your household resides in [REDACTED].

Advanced payments of the premium tax credit are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable FPL, (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market.

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested. On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $16,240.00 for a two-person household. The income amount included in your March 21, 2018 application, $71,308.00, is 439.09% of the 2017 FPL for a two-person household. As APTC is only available to individuals who expect to have a household income less than 400% of the FPL, you were not eligible to receive APTC to help pay for the cost of health coverage.

Since the March 22, 2018 eligibility determination properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.
