Decision

Decision Date: May 24, 2018

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000030571

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you did not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) outside of the open enrollment period as of February 1, 2018?

Procedural History

On January 12, 2018, you filed an application for financial assistance with health insurance through NYSOH.

On January 13, 2018, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination, stating you were eligible to receive up to $347.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC), and eligible for cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver-level QHP, effective February 1, 2018. The notice also advised you to select a health plan for enrollment.

On March 22, 2018, you contacted NYSOH to try to enroll in a QHP. NYSOH completed the "special enrollment period" questionnaire on your behalf, and your request to enroll in a QHP was denied.

Also on March 22, 2018, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed your inability to enroll into a QHP outside of the open enrollment period.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On March 23, 2018, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating you were eligible to receive up to $347.00 per month in APTC, and eligible for cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver-level QHP, effective February 1, 2018. It further stated that you did not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2018.

On May 17, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) On January 12, 2018, you applied for health insurance, and were found eligible to receive APTC. However, no health plan was selected for enrollment.
- 2) You testified, and your NYSOH account confirms, you completed your application online on January 12, 2018. You testified you do not recall whether the online application gave you the option to select a plan on that day.
- 3) You testified you did not speak to NYSOH when you completed your application online.
- 4) You testified, after you updated your application, you received a notice in the mail regarding your eligibility, and stating you could pick a plan, but you did not get a chance to pick a plan for enrollment.
- 5) You testified you went back into your account and tried to pick a plan in mid-February, but were not able to.
- 6) You testified you called NYSOH and were told you would have to wait to enroll until November 2018.
- 7) Your NYSOH account reflects, on March 22, 2018, a NYSOH employee completed a special enrollment period questionnaire on your behalf, and indicated you were seeking a special enrollment based on the fact you were no longer incarcerated as of [REDACTED].
- 8) Your NYSOH account reflects your application for a special enrollment period was denied because "you did not report your qualifying event within 60 days of the event."

- 9) You testified that you lost prior health insurance through NYSOH in August of 2017, and a separate account in your name, [REDACTED], confirms this.
- 10) You testified that since filing your application on January 12, 2018 there have been no other major changes to your household such as a birth, death, marriage, permanent move, or change in household size.
- 11) You testified your income has not changed since you last updated your NYSOH account.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a QHP and enrollees may change QHPs (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2018, the national annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2017 and extended through December 15, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(3)). NY State extended this enrollment period through January 31, 2018 for applications processed through NYSOH (https://www.health.ny.gov/press/releases/2017/2017-09-07_open_enrollment_dates.htm).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a QHP, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
 - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
 - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.

(iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.

(iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.

(2)(i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.

(ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.

(3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a QHP because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.

(4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a QHP is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

(5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the QHP in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for APTC, or has a change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to a new QHP as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a QHP or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a QHP; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days. NYSOH has not elected to adopt this subsection at this time.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a QHP (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined you do not qualify to enroll in a QHP outside of the open enrollment period, effective February 1, 2018.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017. On January 12, 2018, you applied for health insurance and were found eligible for APTC, but did not select a QHP for enrollment. On March 22, 2018, you tried to enroll in a plan but, on March 23, 2018, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you did not qualify to enroll in a QHP for 2018 outside of the open enrollment period.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. To qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

Your NYSOH application reflects a NYSOH employee indicated you were applying for a special enrollment period on the basis you are no longer incarcerated. However, the date your incarceration ended, according to your application, was [REDACTED].

When a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual has 60 days from the date of that event to select a QHP.

Since March 22, 2018 is more than 60 days from [REDACTED], you do not qualify to select a QHP outside of the 2018 open enrollment period on this basis. Likewise, during the hearing, you indicated you had insurance coverage through NYSOH, but this coverage ended in August 2017. Again, the loss of this coverage would only have qualified you for a special enrollment period if your attempt to enroll was within 60 days of the loss of coverage.

The credible evidence of record indicates that, since the open enrollment period closed on January 31, 2018, no other triggering events have occurred that would qualify you for a special enrollment period.

Therefore, NYSOH's denial of a special enrollment period to select a QHP outside of the open enrollment period for 2018 is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The January 18, 2018 eligibility determination is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: May 24, 2018

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You do not qualify for a special enrollment period at this time.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

If applicable, if you think a portion of your appeal should not be dismissed, you can ask us to vacate, or cancel, this dismissal. You must ask us in writing within 30 days after the date on this notice, showing good cause as to why the dismissal should be vacated. NYSOH's Appeals Unit will review your request. If your request is approved, another hearing will be scheduled for you. If your request is denied, NYSOH will tell you in writing. If you do not respond to the dismissed portion of your appeal within 30 days, your appeal will remain dismissed, and NYSOH will take no further action on your appeal.

Insofar as your case was decided, the Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).

If you have questions about appealing to the Federal Marketplace, you can contact them in any of the following ways:
