Decision

Decision Date: May 29, 2018

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000030791

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health properly terminate your and your wife's Essential Plans for non-payment of premiums effective, March 1, 2018?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that your and your wife's reenrollments in your Essential Plans were effective May 1, 2018?

Procedural History

On February 11, 2018, NY State of Health (NYSOH) issued an eligibility redetermination notice, based on your February 10, 2018 application, stating that you and your wife were eligible to enroll in Essential Plans with $0 (free) premiums per month, effective March 1, 2018.

Also on February 11, 2018, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice, based on plan selections made February 10, 2018, stating that you and your wife were enrolled in Essential Plans with a $32.48 premium per month, starting March 1, 2018.

On March 16, 2018, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your and your wife's enrollments in your Essential Plans end on March 1, 2018, because you both did not pay your insurance bills by the payment deadline.

On March 21, 2018, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice, based on your plan selections on March 20, 2018, stating that you and your wife were enrolled in Essential Plans, starting May 1, 2018.

On March 26, 2018, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed insofar as you and your wife were disenrolled from your Essential Plans and reenrolled with a start date of May 1, 2018 and not March 1, 2018.

On May 23, 2018, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you did not pay any premiums for your and your wife's health insurance coverage because you and she qualified for and enrolled into plans that did not require premium responsibility payments.
- 2) On February 11, 2018, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice, based on plan selections made February 10, 2018. The notice stated that you and your wife were enrolled into medical with dental and vision plan types. The notice further stated that you and your wife could lower your premiums by changing to plans that did not cover dental and vision services.
- 3) You testified that you became aware that you and your wife had been disenrolled from your Essential Plans sometime in early March 2018.
- 4) You testified that when you became aware that you and your wife had been disenrolled, you contacted NYSOH and your plan provider to re-enroll.
- 5) You testified that you cancelled your and your wife's reenrollments in the Essential Plan because you became eligible for health insurance through your employer.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Appealable Issues

An applicant has the right to appeal to NYSOH's Appeals Unit: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption; (4) a failure by NYSOH to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination 45 CFR § 155.505; and (5) a denial of a request for a special enrollment period (45 CFR § 155.505(b)(1)(iii), 45 CFR § 155.305(b), and 45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Essential Plan Effective Date

For individuals seeking enrollment in an Essential Plan, New York State has elected to follow the same rules that NYSOH uses in determining effective dates for individuals seeking enrollment in qualified health plans (NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(4)(c); New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 16, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

The effective date of coverage by an Essential Plan is determined by the date on which an applicant selects a plan for enrollment. For individuals who are eligible for enrollment, NYSOH must generally ensure that coverage is effective the first day of the following month for selections received by NYSOH from the first to the fifteenth of any month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(i); see also 42 CFR § 600.320). For selections received by NYSOH from the sixteenth to the last day of any month, NYSOH must ensure coverage is effective the first day of the second following month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(ii)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly terminated your and your wife's Essential Plans for non-payment of premiums, effective March 1, 2018.

On February 10, 2018, you and your wife were enrolled in Essential Plans with $32.48 premiums per month, effective March 1, 2018.

You testified that did not pay the premiums for your and your wife's Essential Plans because you believed that you and she qualified for and were enrolled in plans not requiring premium responsibility payments.

On March 16, 2018, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice, stating that you and your wife were disenrolled from your Essential Plans for non-payment of premiums, effective March 1, 2018.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

NYSOH Appeals Unit only has the authority to review issues related to the following: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption, (4) a failure to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination and (5) a denial of a special enrollment period.

Since the Appeals Unit is not given the authority to review termination of enrollment due to non-payment of premiums, we cannot reach the merits as to whether or not you and your wife were properly terminated from your Essential Plans for non-payment of premiums. Therefore, your appeal of the March 16, 2018 disenrollment notice is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

The second issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that your and your wife's reenrollments in your Essential Plans were effective May 1, 2018.

You contacted NYSOH on March 20, 2018 to reenroll you and your wife into Essential Plans.

The date on which an Essential Plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment. A plan that is selected between the first day and fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the following month. A plan that is selected from the sixteenth day of the month and the end of the month goes into effect on the first day of the second following month.

As you contacted NYSOH to reenroll you and your wife into Essential Plans on March 20, 2018, your reenrollments should have taken effect the first day of the second following month; that is, on May 1, 2018.

Therefore, the March 21, 2018 enrollment confirmation notice stating that your and your wife's reenrollments in your Essential Plans were effective May 1, 2018 is AFFIRMED.
