NY State of Health

Get Ready for Open Enrollment 2022!

In late October, a fully redesigned NY State of Health information website will launch, optimized with easy access to videos and plan selection resources. It will also host NY State of Health informational events during the holidays to answer questions about premiums, tax credits, and how to select a plan. NY State of Health expects to renew coverage for nearly 200,000 households and enroll new people into plans available for 2022.
