*Anthem changed its name to Elevance Health

*HealthNow was acquired by Highmark commissions are paid to the upline agencies that brokers work with. The uplines then pay

*NY State of Health has compiled a list of participating insurers, including whether commissions are payable by product line. Please note that this list is for reference only, and NY State of Health does not guarantee that the information is accurate and up-to-date. Certified NY State of Health brokers should contact each insurer directly with any commission related questions and to determine if a commission is ultimately payable. The above information is subject to change without notice.
